

Dear Chairman and FCC Board Members: I write to express my strong opposition to the proposed rule changes that will allow further media consolidations. These changes will be harmful to the public interest, as have been the recent radio consolidations. I ask you to listen not to the media giants but to ordinary citizens such as myself. Your decision will have a sweeping impact upon the nation.